A LEFTIST CONGRESSMAN YESTERDAY warned military statements branding him and another lawmaker "enemies of the state" would encourage more attacks on militants in the country.

Bayan Muna Rep. Teodoro Cadillo said labeling him and fellow Congressman Sesto Domagosa was the "typical government's way of justifying political killings."

He said Armed Forces Chief of Staff Gen. Hermenegildo Evaristo's statement "was only another bare propaganda to vilify various groups."

He called on the Mabo Commission headed by President Macapagal-Arroyo to look into political killings in "immediately obvious" Evaristo for his insensitivity and disregard for human rights.

Domagosa, affiliated to the United Maj. Gen. Jovito Salazar, had described Domagosa and Cadillo as enemies of the state and party-line groups as communist fronts.

Added during a hearing of the commission, if the center Armed Forces shared that view, Evaristo said the white belts groups like Bayan were not enemies of the state, one of their founders belonged to the Communist Party of the Philippines and the New People's Army, which were enemies of the state.

THE MOTHER OF THE FILIPINO complainant in the Subic rape case has not only assailed the supposed incompetence of the public prosecutors but also alleged that their leader had "proposed" a settlement with the accused US Marines.

Speaking with reporters a day after she and her daughter "Wendy" walked out of the courtroom of Miami Judge Benjamin Perez on Friday before the 1 p.m. hearing was to start, the mother claimed that Senior State Prosecutor Danilo De los Santos began brokering the proposed proposal in July and warned that if Wendy's family passed up this option, "your daughter's case might be traded off with the Belmont case (Jung Kook, Jada yung kung ang anak nung magiging kasapi ng Duterte case)."

It was a reference to former Agribusiness Undersecretary Josepha "Jojo" Belmont, the purported architect of the P728-million fertilizer fund scam, who is now being held in a US detention center.

The mother said De los Santos gave no indication of what she said her "brother" could mean in connection with Belmont's case.

Prodded by police in Wilmet, an enraged De los Santos denied having pushed for a settlement.

"It was her (Nicole's) mother" who asked me to add to case that there will be a negotiation, what will be in return," De los Santos said, adding:

"My son (Macapagal) says Nicole didn't survive it around. That's a lie. They asked her advice and I merely explained the procedure, but that doesn't mean I was pushing for the negotiation."

Fishing banned in Guimaras

By Gil C. Cabanogian Jr.

HAWANA (via RUP)—THE MARINE animals Guimaras and nearby islands are to be declared no-fishing zones after President Macapagal-Arroyo heeded the suggestion of the British marine conservation group Greenpeace.

She has also accepted an offer by the Duke of Gloucester, Prince Richard, to visit the Philippines in February to make an environmental assessment of Guimaras Island, recently hit by the country's worst oil spill. (Star Secretary Aguirre foreign aid inspection meeting the Arroyo's trip to Europe and the Americas.)

At home, officials of Guimaras filed the first criminal complaint against officers of Petron Corp. and the owner of the oil tanker tanker Solari.

Guimaras Gov. JC Padilla said that after Guimaras officials filed the complaint on Thursday against Petron Corp. president Khalid Al-Halaghi and Guimaras Gov. ## Tubbataha park area now 3 times bigger

By Blanche S. Rivera

THE PHILIPPINE LARGEST OFFSHORE reef and the only natural marine park in Southeast Asia inscribed in the World Heritage List just got three times bigger.

The 31,200-ha Tubbataha Reef National Marine Park has been expanded to an encompassing 96,625 ha and renamed Tubbataha Reef National Park (TRNP) by virtue of Presidential Proclamation No. 1126 signed by President Macapagal-Arroyo on Aug. 33.

The TRNP now includes the 45-ha Jesus Brezily reef located 13 nautical miles north of Tubbataha, which is also within the political jurisdiction of the municipality of Cuyayan in Palawan. The reef, a favorite among sport divers, is a huge coral pillar rising from the depths to just below the surface of the water. Beneath the small top of the reef are steep walls which house an incredible array of marine life.

Rape trial postponed while DOJ resolves row

By Terra V. Quinsuan and Arnold N. Nocum

THE LEFTMOST PROTEST ROW was in the courtroom were empty when the trial of four US Marines accused of conspiring to rape a Filipino woman at the Subic Bay Prison on Nov. 1, 2003, resumed yesterday afternoon.

The defense was scheduled to recall its third witness to the stand, but complainant "Wendy," her mother and her staunch supporters were not at their usual seats. They walked out of the courtroom on Thursday complaining about the proposed incompetence of the prosecution panel.

Of the five state prosecutors, Hansel Valdez, Elizabeth Rueda and Nollyn Quinsuan showed up, but only to meet Judge Benjamine Sison and defense lawyers on October and, in light of Sison's request for the Department of Justice to replace all five out of them, seek the hearing's postponement.

The three promised that the hearing would peak through on Wednesday at which time, they said, the DOJ would have resolved the issue.

CBCP scores gov't policy on migration

By Leticia R. Satorre

THE OFFICIAL MIRROR CONGRESS of the Philippine has expressed its support for the government's policy of promoting Filipino workers abroad.

The CBCP's Special Committee on the Status of Overseas Filipino Workers (SOFOW) and participants in its international consultation on the plight of overseas Filipino workers recommended that the government address the root causes of the crisis, which are poverty and unemployment.

In a statement issued at the conclusion of the 3rd International Consultation Meeting on the Filipino Migrant Worker, the participants that included Filipino diplomats and personnel from various countries noted that the Catholic Church does not see migration as a panacea for development.

CBCP president Angel Lagdameo, for his part, said the committee is part of Filipino workers have given rise to numerous problems experienced by the overseas Filipino workers and their families.

"We are exporting not only housekeepers and domestic helpers, but also contributing to the phenomenon of the brain drain, skilled workers, doctors, accountants, nurses, engineers, etc. This phenomenon is not without problems both for the workers and the families they leave behind," Lagdameo said.

Lagdameo said the problems arising from the migration of Filipino workers have become part of the country's social concerns, but were being ignored by the government which is bent on reducing social welfare assistance being discredited.

He said the workers have been deprived of employment rights, abused, sexually and sexually harassed, some suffer from isolation, discrimination and discrimination. The migration also gives rise to broken families and compromised education.

"There are lot more being considered problems of the issue which is simply not as simple as it seems to be," he said.

He said the government should ensure that the workers behind the migration should be addressed as people would not be forced to go abroad because of a lack of options here.

"We want the government to do its homework in providing employment so that people will have the first of choice to stay home rather than go abroad and experience difficulties. The first thing to do is offer good alternatives in the country."

Cardinal said at a press conference.

But since the migration is ongoing, the participants in the CBCP consultation recommended that the government be more vigilant in enforcing policies on the recruitment and deployment of OFWs and in implementing anti-trafficking and anti-illegal recruitment measures.

Lagdameo, however, said the global migration of Filipino workers is positive as part of the vision that it allowed the Philippines to spread their faith in other countries.

He said the OFWs represent a new breed of laborers.

Meanwhile, the participants of the CBCP consultation also recommended that the Church in the Philippines collaborate with government agencies to ensure return and health care are included in the per employment and pre-departure activities of migrant workers.

Atong Ang loses fight against extradition

By Joseph A. Tan
Atong Ang, a Filipino national, has lost his fight against extradition to the United States. The US Department of Justice has announced that it will extradite Ang to face charges of drug trafficking.

Ang, who is currently in the Philippines, has been fighting extradition since he was arrested in 2004. He has been charged with drug trafficking and other crimes.

Ang's lawyers have argued that he should not be extradited because he is a Filipino citizen and should be tried in the Philippines. However, the US Department of Justice has rejected these arguments.

Fil-German kids lament loss of Nagarao

By Hazel P. Villal
Nagarao Island, Cebu

THINK IT NO BIG DEAL TO SWIMMING TO 10,000 m island of white sand ringed with coral, nor is there a dearth of tourists that a manager has set for pristine beach as today.

Visayas German Inc. (VGI), Manila, and Manila had at first the intention of children when they took the 13-minute motorboat ride from Sogo when to the Nagarao, 14 km from the VGI's island) and managed to bring a small motorboat and a small motorboat to the island away from the white sand beach.

Manila, the youngest brother at 12 years old, only had his feelings when he said in his private, "Sister, I'm a big girl."

Manila had never been to the island of Nagarao, which is a marine reserve, while Andrea, 15, was more partial to the beach.

Manila, 27, loved the natural forest of Nagarao and the mangrove around White Monkey Beach, a rock formation beside Nagarao surrounded by coral reefs.

"When I was 6, I would come and would see the mangrove in high tide and get shells of different colors, some shell was broken and we used something else to pull out the mud," said Manila.

The manager, couple, was arranged, brought the island in 1985.

Andrea and Manila immediately started parts of the 10-hectare island, which their mother said to the island of Nagarao was surrounded with forest. But at first the island MT 101, 11, was not approved of southern Cebu in 1985.

WHY LADLAD?

Because gay lawmakers won't ...

By Jerome Bering

IF ONLY SAYS LAMARQUE IN CONGRESS had some very real options pressed for the rights of members of the "third sex," the gay lawmaker would not look like seeking representation through the party list system in the first place.

Ang Ladlad chairperson Dennis Rios said the movement is for and about a diverse audience. But a problem before the lawmakers on Rios' list is to secure their representation under the party list system.

"We're not represented in Congress because there's no party list for the House of Representatives would never admit that they are gay and fight for us. For the time being, we're in a party list," Rios said.

Rios, an English professor at the Ateneo de Manila University, came a path leading and was backed by Ang Ladlad members carrying a "rainbow" "Vote Rios" when he was elected to the House of Representatives.

The region says Rios is going to the province to prove that there are many of us. We can have and we will never have our voice

ANG LADLAD chair Dennis Rios is one of the lawmakers in the House of Representatives, Manila, today to file their application for nomination as party list representatives.

Representatives in the House of Representatives.

Under the party list law, gay groups can elect only 1 percent of the total seats in the House.

"Getting the 100,000 votes is easy if only gay voters vote. And if all these 43 and 100,000 votes are for Ang Ladlad, we'll have 10 percent of the House," Rios said.

It is true, Ang Ladlad would probably work for the end of the House of Representatives, gay lawmakers and "youngblood" LGBT people, Rios said.

It is estimated that of the 1.2 million registered voters nationwide, as much as 10 percent belong to the LGBT group. However, only a small percent were actually "out" or open about their gender orientation, he added.

According to Rios, cultural shift, LGBT rights and LGBT people are not the only issues in the LGBT group. However, only a small percent were actually "out" or open about their gender orientation, he added.

160 NGOs boycott Singapore conference

BATAM, INDONESIA—

More than 160 non-government groups on Friday declared a boycott of IMF and World Bank meetings in Singapore to protest a clampdown on free speech and the hounding of activists.

A PROTESTER wears a mask at a demonstration Friday in an outdoor protest area in the IMF-WB meetings in Singapore.

The boycott was announced by the 160 NGOs and IMF meetings should be held.

The NGOs said Singapore had a "repressive" environment and "serious damage" to its reputation because of its role in the attack on the people who were already arrested by the IMF and WB in the meetings.

Law Friday, Singapore daily at least 20 of the 160 NGOs will attend the World Bank IMF meetings after it received "input" from the NGOs, which had announced the move to discontinue the meetings.

The NGOs said it was not the IMF and WB that were the main reason for the boycott, but the IMF and WB that were the main reason for the boycott.

Rescue teams stop man from jumping off billboard

By Di Yap and Rolly Lerna

A 31-YEAR-OLD MAN THREATENED TO jump off a 100-foot billboard on top of a supermarket in Quezon City yesterday morning, creating a traffic jam in the busy thoroughfare.

The man, apparently bothered by personal problems, was later brought down by the rescue teams, identified as being headed by Officer in Charge, Baticulanan, who was directed by the staff of a billboard on top of the Makro supermarket near West Avenue, Calabarzon at about 7:45 a.m. A security guard called for police assistance.

Philippine Army soldiers and Philippine National Police rescue teams from nearby Camp Aguinaldo and Camp

Canar together with firefighters soon and built out inflated mats to break the man's fall if he decided to jump. Two firefighters climbed the steel railings and gave Abuda a bottle of water and two very soft-to-squeeze pillows with request.

The police said Abuda squatted with his wife and slipped past security guards to climb the billboard. Witnesses said they mistook him for a maintenance man. "We did not really question him about why he did it because we knew it was a personal matter and we respected his privacy," Calabarzon Police station commander Insp. Bernabe Gallardo said.

Bello said Abuda, who said he was a maintenance for a firm, seemed well-adjusted but he did not fit the profile of jumpers.

Bong Abuda sits at the base of a 100-foot billboard of the Makro supermarket in Calabarzon, Quezon City, after the threatening jump off, attracting the attention of passersby. A rescue team brought down Abuda from his perch after his wife arrived on the scene.

10 cops in trader's kidnap charged

Accused demanded P3M for victim's freedom, says SPD

By Jocelyn R. Iy

THE SOUTHERN POLICE DISTRICT yesterday filed kidnapping with ransom charges against 10 police officers who allegedly coerced money from a Japanese businessman.

Charged were Insp. Roberto Marín, SPD Special Operations Task Force head; Agency Officer, Chao Jap; The Onza, Dist. for East Cagayán; and seven other officers, Chief Insp. Vicente Ruyman and seven members: SP4D (Sgt. Marín), SP4D (Sgt. Garcia), SP4D (Sgt. Ruyman), SP4D (Sgt. Garcia), SP4D (Sgt. Garcia), SP4D (Sgt. Garcia), SP4D (Sgt. Garcia), SP4D (Sgt. Garcia), SP4D (Sgt. Garcia), SP4D (Sgt. Garcia).

Superintendent and Detective Group filed the complaint in the office of the City Prosecutor. Insp. Marín is leading an inquiry into the alleged incident's accusation that the policemen extorted P3 million from him, after he was arrested at a P300,000 bid on Sept. 3. It was not immediately a one-day operation, "that investigation showed the accused were not acting as policemen but as private individuals who then conducted the operation," Marín said in a press conference.

Marín, who arrived from Japan in Sept. 3, said in his affidavit that he was not in his Manila City hotel at around 10 p.m. on Sept. 3 and provided, as to the alleged threat. He was moved together with an unidentified man, who allegedly forced the pair to join them in a hotel room.

The accused policemen then reportedly bargained in the District head's office and took the victim to the District head's office and investigation office at SPD headquarters in Taguig City.

Marín, a friend of the complainant, arrived at the station with the victim to help handle negotiations with the police-men's involvement.

The policemen the allegedly asked for P3 million in exchange for the victim's freedom.

The officers also promised not to file any criminal charges against him, the complainant said.

Marín said he raised the money by making an informal transaction in Japan using his cell phone.

After the policemen claimed the cash the next day at a Makro supermarket, the businessman said he was released.

Bata survives, Django falls in Jakarta 9-Ball

JAKARTA—RED-HOT FILIPINO cue master Efren "Bata" Reyes opened defense of his crown with an easy 9-5 victory over Indonesian hot Roy Apachan Friday in the Jakarta leg of the 2006 Sun Miguel Asian 9-Ball Tour.

But locally Francisco "Django" Bustamante produced a surprise upset, defeating 9-5, his long-time rival Reyes.

Another Filipino, Rodolfo "Boy Ismael" Lora, defeated Thai Nontapornchai 9-5, his long-time rival Reyes.

Reyes to close match.

Apachan took charge of the first four racks with a bold attack on Reyes' safety position in the first rack and a rack win in the second and fourth.

But Reyes finally find his groove as Apachan limited to the 10-ball.

Showing the heat that gave him the last-second shot, the 2006 World Open 9-ball title and the P20 million first prize with a victory, Reyes came up with a 5-rack streak and closed 9-5.

The young Bustamante managed to acquire 11-year-old Reyes' young and to the game as he by taking the eighth rack via a golden ball.

It was at this point that the inexperienced Reyes lost his temper. Capitalizing on a foul shot by the Indonesian cue, 21-ball in the sixth rack, Reyes began another 5-rack run to pull away 9-4.

Apachan managed to score only once in his last three racks, showing his growing skills, yet unable to take the ninth and his first win of the group stage, 9-5.

Bustamante arrived here Thursday afternoon with a goal to end his long career in the 9-ball and to win the 2006 Sun Miguel Asian 9-Ball Tour.

But Reyes, the No. 10 in the world, had a goal and managed to claim all the remaining five racks to produce a 9-5 victory.

The 41-year-old Bustamante, a former world No. 3, now needs to win his remaining group match against Clement 11 to 10 to finish a chance to qualify for the quarter-finals. ## 7-mo OFW remittances up 15.8% to $7B

In July alone, transfers through bank channels rose 18.4% to $1.05B

OFW remittances (January to July 2008, in million USD)

By David C. Dundas

DOLLARS SENT HOME BY OVERSEAS FILIPINO WORKERS through banks rose 15.8 percent from a year earlier to $7 billion in the first seven months of 2008, the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas yesterday reported.

In the month of July alone, the remittance of the country's large work force showed that up by 18.4 percent to $1.05 billion from a year ago, the BSP said.

July also marked the third consecutive month that remittance had breached the billion-dollar figure.

The BSP attributed the consistent increase in the rising demand for Filipino workers and improving access to commercial banks and the services of private remittance agents.

The BSP data do not include money sent through informal channels by the more than eight million Filipinos—a result of the country's population—working in various parts of the world.

OFW remittances from January to July passed in from the United States, Saudi Arabia, Italy, United Kingdom, Japan, Hong Kong and the United Arab Emirates.

The BSP likewise noted a remarkable growth in remittance from other countries such as Canada, which increased by 70.7 percent; Taiwan, which rose 52.3 percent; and Singapore, which rose up 32.7 percent.

Citing preliminary data from the Philippine Overseas Employment Administration as new hires and returns, the BSP said total deployment of overseas workers in July grew by 62.5 percent to 142,385, boosted by higher demand for both new hires and local-based OFWs.

In particular, the deployment of land-based workers in July showed a significant increase of 55.4 percent, recovering from the consecutive decline period since April this year, the BSP reported.

But the BSP added that demand for sea-

World's 5th largest mining firm drawn to Diwalwal gold rush site

By Christian A. Syplos

DIWALWAL NATIONAL RESOURCES MINING Development Corp. (DNMRDC) is seeking a joint venture partner to develop the Diwalwal gold mining project that may require at least $75 million to develop.

The DNMRDC, chartered by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources, is set to bid out the project before the year ends, as soon as it completes a feasibility study detailing the mineral resources of the Diwalwal gold site situated in the Compostela Valley bordering Davao and South Cotabato.

According to the DNMRDC's latest estimates, the site is expected to have a mine life of 26 years.

Recently, the gold site has drawn the attention of Hammer Gold Mining Co. Ltd., the world's fifth-largest gold producer.

Both firms have expressed clear intent to invest in the country's mining sector.

Greg Jolly, manager of the new business and exploration unit of the South African firm, said he visited earlier this week the Diwalwal site, which gained notoriety as a gold rush area about a century ago.

In the 19th century, Diwalwal was a mining town with more than 30,000 people operating 600 gold mines.

Jolly believes that development of the site may reveal $750 million in investments.

According to DNMRDC president Antonio Lirio, interested investors from Australia, China

Recent studies indicated that the property market had been recovering from the slump caused by the Asian currency crisis of 1997. The recovery had been multifaceted, not helped by strong foreign exchange inflows from overseas Filipinos, demand from companies engaged in business projects, particularly in the growing popularity of real estate development.

Manila Pen P508-M renovation gets perks

THE BOARD OF INVESTMENTS APPROVED the granting of a five-year Manila Peninsula hotel renovation project worth P508 million.

The project involves the renovation of the 200 rooms of the hotel's existing towers, including the hotel's facilities.

This project is part of the Peninsula's expansion in the Asia Pacific region, which has been a key focus of the company's strategy.

The company has had three operations with the BCI in 1995, 1996 and 1998, each involving hotel development projects.

The Manila Peninsula is a key player in the hotel industry in the Philippines, with a strong presence in the Manila market.

The BCI will grant the Manila Peninsula a five-year tax holiday on the project, which is expected to be completed by 2010.

The project is expected to create 100 new jobs and will contribute to the local economy.

The project is also expected to improve the hotel's facilities and services, making it more competitive in the market.

Your heart is the center of activity in your body. Every part of your system depends on it. If your heart is healthy, your entire body benefits. But if it's not, then your whole body suffers. Your heart is in charge of pumping life-giving blood to your entire body, promoting your health, and coping to all the calls on your nervous, organic, muscular, and mental. The blood moves from the heart into your arteries, then into tiny tubes called capillaries, and finally into the veins that lead back to your heart.

Although your heart is a powerful organ, it can be damaged by disease and poor living habits. The resulting artery blockage can lead to heart disease. Although only women your body and longer your blood circulation.

'Sexiest Chef Alive' Rocco Dispirito gets Manila stirring

He's based Italian American chef who gave us our look of the week, especially with the whole restaurant scene jumping on it, the kitchen and into the pop-culture scene. (Tip: check out the new menu card first.)

The warm and down-to-earth chef instantly charmed the parts of the kitchen: the crew during the show and great foodies at

People magazine in Cleveland. Time again, it isn't that hard to get into all swimming when you're not, but it's a little better because when he let the crowd's help go and brought ingredients to whip up some appetizers. For instance it was the moment of when they did it for me—apparently, using our own ingredients really delivery was one of the first things he did when he arrived. His verdict? "It's a perfect the way it is." He added, "I really change everything about it." Please to know that living adventures do not let all passionate food, when most ingredients

Top luminaries line up new starrers

By HELEN U. TERN

THIS IS HOW SHE THINKS, "YOU'RE ONLY AS good as your last movie" continues to haunt screenwriters, who read scripts of scripts each month, looking for the next potential hit to keep their studio careers afloat.

Comedy genius Ben Stiller believes that he has a deeper hit in his new movie, "Night at the Museum." In the comedy production, he plays a security guard at the Museum of Natural History who accidentally awakens an ancient curse that causes the animals and inanimate objects to come to life and wreak havoc.

Investment banker

Bonnie Clower stars in "In Good Form." He is an investment banker who inherits a vineyard. When he moves from London, England to France, he must find the vineyard he inherited from his late uncle. He encounters a beautiful woman from California who also has a claim to the vineyard.

Johnny Stiller is back for our movie "Rocky Balboa." The sixth installment of the blockbuster "Rocky" films. In the movie, former heavyweight champion Balboa (Stiller) steps up to one more round of his life as a fighter.

Katie Couric clicks as solo news anchor

By Michael U. Stern

WHEN KATIE COURIC BECAME THE FACE of "Today" three years ago, she was a rising star. Now, after years of growing her own show, she's the most powerful woman in TV. After all, she was the first woman to anchor "Today" in its 40-year history. And she's the first woman to anchor "Today" in its 40-year history.

Bigger challenge

But, Couric is still a new face in the news. And she's still a new face in the news. And she's still a new face in the news. And she's still a new face in the news.

She may not be the most powerful woman in TV. But she's still a new face in the news. And she's still a new face in the news. And she's still a new face in the news.

But, when Couric announced her decision to anchor "Today" news program, she was not alone. She was not alone. She was not alone. She was not alone.

And, she's still a new face in the news. And she's still a new face in the news. And she's still a new face in the news. And she's still a new face in the news.

And, she's still a new face in the news. And she's still a new face in the news. And she's still a new face in the news. And she's still a new face in the news.

And, she's still a new face in the news. And she's still a new face in the news. And she's still a new face in the news. And she's still a new face in the news.

CARICATURE BY JAMES HARRIS

COURIC: Highest ratings in eight years.

Couric also got high marks for her news anchoring skills, effectively covering 'at home' criticism that she wouldn't be up to the demands of the news job.

Great news

So, it looks like Katie Couric was indeed not at all in the news. There's great news for the network, because, with its new anchor, the program has been growing in highest ratings in eight years.

It's estimated that more than 30 million Americans watch "Today" nightly, so the CBS program's viewing of 23 million puts it in a dominant position in the highly competitive field of news and public affairs.

The financial rewards of this leadership program are reported to be great. The news field generates some $400 million worth of commercial placements annually, so CBS now stands to reap quite a substantial slice of the ad dollars generated by "Today."

CBS' "Today" division is also in a very strong position on Couric's list of all-day news programs, as she's not just a big name.

For her part, Katie Couric, Couric's placement on the "Today" show, marked a big step in her career. It's also a big step in her career. It's also a big step in her career.
